ROBERT MANTELL HERE LAST EVENING

LARGE AUDIENCE GREETED THE ROMANTIC ACTOR.

Presented "Monbars," a Beautiful Five Act Historical Play Taken From the French—Good Attraction Here Tomorrow Evening—Otis Skinner Will Be Here Next Week.

Robert Bruce Mantell, one of the foremost figures on the American stage today, appeared at the Myers Grand last evening, presenting that beautiful five-act play, "Monbars." A large and enthusiastic audience was present, and showed their appreciation by frequent applause.

The play is a bright one, and holds the attention of the audience through all the five acts. "Monbars," a young naval officer, falls in love with Diane, the daughter of the Marquis de Noirmont, who is one of his largest creditors, and as a token of his gratitude to "Monbars" for extending the time of payment, the Marquis gives him his daughter's hand. Diane has, however, already betrothed herself to Louis de Meran, a friend of "Monbars," which after his marriage "Monbars" discovers, but is not apprised of the man's identity. The marriage, therefore, turns out very unhappily, and one of "Monbars' enemies, Laurent, conceals a scheme to poison him. Circumstances point to the guilt of Diane. The denouncement comes, however; Diane is proved innocent, Laurent is killed by "Monbars" in a duel. Diane discovers her real love for "Monbars," and the curtain descends upon a happy reunited couple.

The support given Mr. Mantell last evening was most excellent in every respect.

Miss Helen MacGregor is a handsome woman, and well adapted to the part of "Diane." She won warm applause. Judged in comparison with Miss Behrens, who was seen in the part in Janesville when the piece was first produced, however, she was not wholly triumphant. She has favor, but lacks finesse, and her more impassioned scenes suffered on this account.

Manager Wm. J. Hanley, who is with the company, has arranged with Manager Myers to bring Mr. Mantell here next season in his new play entitled "The Dagger and the Cross," from the book of the same name by Joseph Had-

Operatic Extravaganza "1492"

The Boston Globe says the following of "1492," which appears at Myers Grand tomorrow night:

"The operatic extravaganza '1492' by the famous 'Maie Patti' Stuart and her company as presented at the Grand Opera House last evening, is a rousing success from beginning to end. The initial performance last night was witnessed by an audience that packed the Grand Opera House to its fullest extent. It was an audience full of enthusiasm—full of tumult. The specialties were varied and of a high order of excellence, and it is safe to say that the audience last night, if called upon for an expression, would vote Stuart the most successful Isabella that ever appeared before the footlights. One of the decided hits of the evening is the singing of the national anthems by the entire company at the end of the second act. These included America, Yankee Doodle, Star Spangled Banner and others. A special scene and tableau is introduced, showing the destruction of Cervera's fleet, by the powerful guns of our fleet; while the stars and stripes float over Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

Otis Skinner is coming.

That the theatre-goers of Janesville wish to see Otis Skinner appear before them in "Rosemary" is evident from the fact that already a sufficient number have signed the subscription list to warrant Manager Myers in bringing that noted actor to this city. His date of appearance will be Saturday evening, March 25th.

Manager Myers has placed the best seats at one dollar, which is most reasonable indeed, as compared with prices charged in other cities.

A MARK FOR CONFIDENCE MEN

Kenosha Man Wondered Why He Had So Many Chicago Friends.

William Williams, of Kenosha, believed himself very popular and well-known when he walked through the Grand Central station in Chicago yesterday. Williams was dressed in a suit of flashy pattern and a heavy beakskin overcoat was thrown carelessly across one arm. He carried a large satchel with "William Williams" painted in large letters on both sides.

The man from Kenosha had walked but a short distance in the depot when a young man approached him.

"How do you do, Mr. Williams," exclaimed the man. "How are all the folks down home?"

"Well, I hardly remember you, but I meet so many people in Kenosha that you may have slipped my memory."

interested Williams with a story of an explosion near the lake, and was about to take him to the lake front when Sergeant James Mooney appeared and arrested him. Justice Foster fined Hansen $25.

THE TURK IS A GREAT TERROR

Washington Society Afraid of the Sultan's Representative.

Society ladies at Washington, D. C., are said to be in terror of the new minister from Turkey. A correspondent writes that he is one of those foreigners who comes to America full of curiosity concerning this people, and with no hesitation about exercising it. Usually the American ladies of Washington are very willing to satisfy this curiosity, and can hold their own against the questioning. But this new Turk is altogether unspeakable in a social sense. He attended an official function a few evenings since and was introduced to a lady in full reception dress, a little fuller than usual perhaps. The Turk exchanged the ordinary common places, for he talks the language of the country to which he is accredited. Gradually his attention became riveted upon the lady's costume in such a manner that she was embarrassed, and raised her fan in front of her. At length the minister, in his earnest way, pointing to the low cut of the bodice, asked: "Madam, does your husband permit this without protest?"

The lady colored furiously and replied that her husband found no fault with her taste. The minister shook his head in a deprecating way, and began to tell how different it was in this country. The lady made her escape as quickly as possible. Not many evenings afterward the minister was at another official reception. He was presented to a well known society woman, and began: "Are you married?"

The lady answered in the affirmative with a smile.

"May I ask how long you have been married?"

The lady said that she had entered the state of matrimony some ten years ago.

"How many children have you?" was the next question.

The lady replied, with a slight manifestation of embarrassment, that she had none.

The minister stopped to think for a full half minute, and with a puzzled look, resumed:

"In my country—"

The lady fled, and what the minister was going to say will never be known. But no member of Washington society will now risk an introduction to the terrible Turk if she can help herself.

"My patients are learning that 'Orangeine' taken promptly, will head off many ills," says a prominent physician.

CARD FROM THE MAYOR

Mr. Thoroughgood is Willing to Accept the Decision of His Friends.

To the electors of the City of Janesville: Gentlemen—The time for a change of municipal officers being near at hand, I feel it a duty to my many friends to state my position in the matter, thereby setting at rest the many inquiries to which I have been, until now, unable to answer fully.

I will say, if I study my own interests financially and consider the amount of time I have given to the office of mayor, I ought to retire. If there has been any honor connected with the office, I have had my full share. How deserving I am of that honor I will leave to those who know me to determine. I will not ask a re-nomination, but if my friends, irrespective of party, feel well disposed toward me, I am at their service; and whether elected or not, I shall still be the same Thoroughgood, always having the best interests of Janesville in mind, and every voter, rich or poor, of whatever creed or nationality, being the same to me if a good citizen.

JOHN THOROUGHGOOD, Mayor.

When Robert Mantell, the eminent actor, rose this morning at the Grand hotel he was suffering from a severe cold and complained of not feeling well.

He said he caught cold the first of the week and that it had lingered with him instead of growing better. Mr. Mantell stated that he acted under difficulty last evening as the result of being in poor health.

This afternoon he and his excellent company left for Beloit where they show this evening.

SHALL JANESVILLE HAVE A Y. W. C. A.?

INTERESTING MEETING HELD YESTERDAY.

Miss Martha Teal, Traveling State Secretary of this State, Interests the Ladies of This City on the Subject—Only One Thousand Dollars Is Needed.

The question of organizing a local Young Woman's Christian Association was fully discussed yesterday afternoon by about twenty-five interested ladies at the Jackson street home of Miss Susie Jeffris. The ladies in attendance were very enthusiastic and represented several church denominations.

That there is need of such an organization in Janesville was shown clearly by arguments advanced by several of the ladies at the meeting yesterday afternoon.

Miss Martha Teal, the traveling state secretary of Wisconsin, was present and gave a very practical talk and offered many suggestions. She said that for several years the question of organizing a Y. W. C. A. in Janesville had been agitated, but the time had not seemed ripe, but now that the debt on the Y. M. C. A. building had been raised, she was here to assist in the organizing of this young woman's association.

That there is need of such an organization in Janesville is apparent to all and if the plan contemplated can be successfully carried out, it will mean the same to the young women as the Y. M. C. A. is to the young men—an incentive to a higher and nobler life.

Miss Teal outlined the grand work as it is being carried on in other cities, especially Milwaukee and Racine. At first rooms are rented and everything possible is done for the comfort and happiness of the young ladies, especially the working girls. Miss Teal said she would not advise the organization of an association unless $1,000 could be raised.

After Miss Teal's remarks, a general discussion followed and at her suggestion, a committee was appointed to find out statistics about the number of young ladies in Janesville.

Mrs. J. C. Klein is chairman of this committee, which consists of Mrs. Wm. Knights and Misses Jessie Butler, Susie Jeffris, Rena Dawey, Mae Bostwick, Cornelia Reddy and Ida Fox, each lady having the privilege of inviting a co-worker from her church.

While here Miss Teal was the guest of Miss Jessie Butler and last evening an informal reception was given in her honor at the home of Miss Butler's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth H. Butler, 206 North High street.

Perhaps you have got it yet. You may be one of the many people who have recovered from the first acute attack but have been left in such a condition that you are losing strength and your vitality is slowly ebbing away. ANXIOUS FOR ANNEXATION.Spanish Residents of Havana Are Working Hard.*FUND OF $5,000,000 RAISED.*Gen. Gomez Will Proceed with His Plans for Distributing the Money Apportioned to the Cuban Troops—Assembly Is Officially Repudiated.

Havana, March 16.—The Spanish residents are preparing to make a big fight for annexation when the proper time comes. They are raising a fund with which to help the movement. Five million dollars have already been raised.

Gen. Gomez has decided to proceed with the plans agreed upon for distributing the $5,000,000 to the Cuban troops on disbanding, as though the military assembly did not exist. He conferred for two hours Wednesday with Gov.-Gen. Brooke regarding details.

The United States military authorities publish the following statement: "We are officially authorized to say that the president of the United States will not recognize any obligation incurred by the body known as the Cuban assembly and that all reports and assertions to the contrary are absolutely untrue."

This is perhaps due to a story published in the newspaper El Reconcentrado to the effect that a representative of an American syndicate, including Senator Hanna, is now here with a view of making a loan to the assembly. There have been six resignations from the assembly since Sunday—Gens. Cespedes, Montaguano, Nunez, Leira, Mola and Tamayo.

Atkinson Bill Is Now Law.

Lansing, Mich., March 16.—The Atkinson bill, upon which Gov. Pingree made his last campaign, became a law at 2:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when the governor signed it. Almost immediately thereafter he sent to the senate the names of the men he has appointed to serve upon the board of assessors provided by the law. They are Robert Oakman of Detroit, a member of the board of assessors of that city; Geo. B. Horton of Fruit Ridge, grand master of the state grange, and Col. Edwin M. Irish of Kalamazoo, now in command of the Thirty-first Michigan Infantry, stationed at Augusta, Ga.

Cannot Work Under New Law.

Richmond, Ind., March 16.—A receiver was appointed Wednesday for the Continental Fraternal union, which operates in Indiana, and had its headquarters here. It is an endowment insurance company. Paul C. Graff was named as receiver, giving a bond of $50,000. The reason given for the action, which is one of voluntary liquidation, is that the laws passed by the last state legislature make it impossible to conduct the order successfully. The assets are about $25,000, with liabilities much larger. There are 2,000 members.

ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.Senate Kills Bill Limiting Pay of Cook County State's Attorney.

Springfield, Ill., March 16.—Following is the gist of the routine doings in the legislature Wednesday:

The senate killed bill requiring tramps to register in towns through which they pass. Passed Edwards bill allowing interested persons to testify in contested will cases; also Brenholt bill extending life of chattel mortgages to four years; also Payne bill for appointment of commissions to establish permanent surveys; also Gardner bill allowing county judges in counties of over 75,000 to appoint stenographers; also Puanam bill allowing title guarantee companies to do business without coming under provisions of insurance laws; also Berry bill allowing insurance companies to issue registered policies secured by deposit of reserve fund with insurance commissioner; also Chapman bill giving Pope county additional term of circuit court. Advanced to third reading Begole bill amending game laws.

The house passed the committee bill revising mining laws. Failed to pass with emergency clause senate San Jose scale bill, which will come up next Tuesday without that clause. Amended bill providing for free employment agencies by making it apply only to cities of over 50,000, and then postponed further consideration until next Tuesday. Put off to next Wednesday consideration of senate bill authorizing park districts to issue bonds for shore protection. Advanced to third reading all appropriation bills on calendar.

Among the bills introduced during the day were the following:

By Senator Berry—For commission to arrange for Illinois exhibit at Ohio centennial exposition at Toledo. By Senator Punderburk—Appropriating $4,887 to pay Henry W. Rokker for state printing done in 1886 and 1887.

By Representative Hamilton—Prohibiting the collection of switching or terminal charges. By Representative Brown—To repeal gas frontage act of 1887.

PINGREE'S NEW PARTY.

National Convention Called to Meet in Buffalo June 28.

Detroit, Mich., March 16.—Gov. Pingree's long-threatened new party may be about to materialize. A national movement has been set on foot, headed by the governor's own familiar name, and supported by the names of some of the most prominent of the radical politicians of the day throughout the country, and by the heads of various political and labor organizations, together with Jerry Simpson, ex-Gov. Altgeld of Illinois, Eugene V. Debs, "Coin" Harvey, George Fred Williams of Massachusetts, United States Senators Pettigrew and Allen, and others.

The new movement is given the name of "The National Social and Political conference." It is to meet at Buffalo, N. Y., June 28 to July 4, for "united and efficient action in important directions." The committee fathering the movement comprises seventy-one well-known names from all parties and classes and a very large number of national organizations.

Both Sides Are Obdurate.

Brazil, Ind., March 16.—The situation in the block coal field here begins to assume a serious aspect. A meeting of operators and the miners' organization, and Frederick Dillcher of the national committee, met Wednesday, and after a heated discussion adjourned without accomplishing anything. Another meeting will be held today, which will probably determine whether a strike will be inaugurated here or not. Both operators and miners are obdurate when it comes to yielding points.

Car Goes Into a River.

Worcester, Mass., March 16.—An electric car on the Millbury road went through the bridge over the Blackstone river at Millbury at 9:30 last night, and three men were drowned. One passenger, Louis Pluff, was rescued, nearly overcome, by chopping through the roof of the car. The drowned are: Fred White, 26, conductor; Michael Shea, 33, motorman; Morris Welsh, 21, a passenger.

Fear Yellow Fever for Men.

Washington, March 16.—Active work is going on in all branches of the war department to secure a speedy withdrawal of the volunteer troops from Cuba. It is feared the number of transports now in the possession of the government are inadequate for carrying all the volunteers from Cuban ports to the United States before the yellow fever season begins.

Gen. Alger Denies the Story.

New York, March 16.—Secretary of War Russell A. Alger spent Wednesday in this city. He talked freely about presidential prospects for 1900, the conduct of the recent Spanish war, the beef question and the persistent rumors that he is to retire from the McKinley cabinet. The latter reports, he declared emphatically, have no foundation whatever.

Brooke Not to Act in Haste.

Washington, March 16.—Maj.-Gen. Brooke will not immediately dissolve the Cuban assembly. This decision meets with the entire approval of the war department. It is much preferred that the assembly should cease to exist by its own action than by the result of interference by military force to dissolve it.

Diplomat for Judge.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 16.—Thos. O'Hara, United States minister to Nicaragua under the Cleveland administration, was nominated late yesterday in the democratic convention for judge of the circuit court.

Susan B. Anthony Will Attend.

Rochester, N. Y., March 16.—Miss Susan B. Anthony will attend the convention of the International Council of Women, to be held in Westminster hall, London, about the middle of June. This will be one of the most important gatherings of women the world ever has seen. Miss Anthony will be accompanied by Mrs. May Wright Sewall, Mrs. Mary Lowe Dickinson, Mrs. Nannie Gaffney, the Rev. Anna Shaw, Miss Lucy E. Anthony and Miss Jane Slocum.

Distrust This Country.

Mexico City, March 16.—Cecil Rhodes' predictions, regarding the absorption of the Latin-American countries, continue to give text for innumerable editorials in clerical party papers, for his prophecies are in line with their utterances for years, as they never lose an opportunity to cultivate distrust of the United States and American people. The liberal party papers pay no heed to Rhodes, who is regarded as having no special knowledge of the new world affairs.

Tubeworkers' Wages Raised.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 16.—The wages of all the employees of the Pennsylvania Tube company have been advanced 10 per cent. Some thousands of men are affected by the company's action.

To Inspect Two Canals.

Washington, March 16.—A party of some 60 members of congress, senators and representatives, will accept the invitation extended by the gentlemen representing the Panama canal interests, and will take an ocean voyage to inspect the Nicaragua and Panama canal works. The party will leave New York about March 23.

Judge Hilton Ill.

New York, March 16.—Former Judge Henry Hilton is reported to be critically ill at his home in this city. The nature of his illness is kept a secret by the members of the family. Mr. Hilton's condition was said to be so serious last night that his physicians remained with him for several hours.

BACKACHE.Mrs. Pinkham speaks earnestly to women suffering from this discouraging complaint.

Backache is one of the most common of woman's troubles and one of the most wearing.

It is not an acute pain, but a most distressing, wearying sensation, making work almost impossible and indicating disease of the feminine organs.

A common mistake is to treat backache in women with local external applications, calling it "a little spinal irritation" or a "touch of rheumatism."

Do not be deceived; your backache means serious trouble for you unless the cause of it is removed.

All uterine and ovarian difficulties are relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Such relief progresses in almost every case to a complete cure. With relief of these troubles backache disappears.

Mrs. M. E. MULLER, 16 Franklin St., Providence, R. I., writes:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for backache. The pain was something dreadful; at times I could not walk straight. Now I am all right and enjoy good health. I feel like a new woman. You do not know how thankful I am that I have your health back, and I have you to thank for it. Your medicine is the best that I have ever used. I advise all ladies to try it, and I am sure it will give unbounded satisfaction. I will recommend it to every friend I have.

Miss LIZZIE KOELLA, 529 Tecumseh St., Toledo, Ohio, writes:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot praise your Vegetable Compound enough. For about a year I was sick with the backache. I could not work, could not sleep at night, and did not care to live. About two months ago I saw your advertisement in a paper, and thought I would try your Compound. To-day I feel like a new person. I am just enjoying health; never felt so good in my life. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to many of my friends, who are now using it, and think it is just splendid.

A woman of experience in these matters understands women, and Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., has a wider experience than any physician, male or female. She offers you her counsel free of charge, and it is a friendly, sympathetic counsel. No man sees your letter or its answer at any time, and to secure the best advice it is necessary that you should be perfectly frank, this you can be to one of your own sex.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound A Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.WINE OF CARDUI*Woman's Crowning Virtue.

BELTON, Mo., July 27.
For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so dependent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.

MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.

Wine of Cardui

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

A LARGE BOTTLE OF WINE OF CARDUI COSTS $1.00 AT THE DRUG STORE.

THE CUBAN ASSEMBLY

Nobody need be surprised at the intelligence that the government at Washington will give no guarantee to any financial obligation that may be issued by the Cuban assembly, says The St. Louis Globe Democrat. The government authorizes this announcement because there have been rumors that the assembly contemplated putting out bonds for some purpose or other, with the expectation that the United States might be induced to give them sufficient sanction to cause their acceptance. The government's action, however, in authorizing the statement that the United States will assume no responsibility nor any such obligations stands a chance to defeat the assembly's scheme.

It ought to be plain to every reasonable person that the United States cannot afford to give any sort of official recognition to the Cuban assembly or any other body of Cubans yet organized. The government has steadily refused to recognize the so-called Cuban republic. Powerful attempts were made in congress on the eve of the war to induce the government to stand sponsor in some shape or other for the acts of the civil authority which it was pretended the insurgents had set up, but they failed. The body calling itself the Cuban assembly has as little authority to speak for the Cuban people as had the regime, or alleged regime, which the great body of the democratic party wanted to secure recognition for in the latter part of 1897 and the opening months of 1898.

The course of the McKinley administration has been consistent and intelligent on this recognition question throughout. It has ignored all these so-called governments in Cuba from the start. The assembly represents a small portion of the insurgent army, and apparently the men who chose it, and for whom it assumes to speak, are turning against it. The fragment of the Cuban population which pays any attention to the assembly's pretensions is diminishing rapidly, and that junta's days are evidently numbered. Not until an election is held under American auspices, in which all elements of the residents of the island are represented, can any assembly, congress, or any other political body secure any commission to speak officially for the Cuban people.

All the American troops are to be armed with Krag-Jorgensen rifles, and the old Springfield are to be sent home. This is as it should be. Even the much berated Filipinos know the value of smokeless powder, and in this respect, many of them were better equipped than were Uncle Sam's troops.

He who dances does not always have to pay the fiddler. The Indiana young people who adjourned Sunday School to hold a dance with the church organ as the inspiration, for instance, will be compelled to settle with the deacons.

The assembly does not intend that there shall be any loophole in the anti-pass law. This is as it should be—either enact a valid law fully covering the case, or do nothing. No half way measure will be sufficient.

Lord Beresford says the American navy leads the world. This statement not only pleases us, but strengthens the opinion that what Lord Beresford doesn't know about navies isn't worth knowing.

The political pot is beginning to simmer, and many a citizen is putting an occasional brand into the fire. As yet, however, nothing has been boiled into tangible form.

How can Uncle Sam be expected to please the Cuban assembly that calls Gen. Gomez a traitor?

Col. Jack Chion seems to be the Ma Mulah of the Kentucky Swat.

Attend the caucuses and "see that the best men win."

AMERICAN LOSS WAS SMALL.

Otis Reports on Recent Fighting of Wheaton's Brigade.

Washington, March 16.—The war department received Wednesday a report from Gen. Otis of the operations of Wheaton's brigade at and near Pasig, as follows:

One of the most successful terms ever experienced in the university college of agriculture has drawn to a close and the young men have left for their homes or to positions which have been secured for them by the college. The attendance during the past term in the short course in agriculture was 196, more than double that of three years ago; of this number thirty-two came from other states and 164 from Wisconsin. Dairymen, stock breeders, horticulturists and general farmers have been quick to realize the importance of the services of these young men, and no less than 100 calls have been received at the college during the past three weeks for the students.

Seventy-one students secured positions as managers and helpers on dairy, stock and fruit farms, and left at the close of the term to enter upon their respective lines of work in the different states to which they had been called.

These same five players will participate in the baseball game with the exception of Kimball and with the addition of Keltz, Rudolph, Fred Smith, Farmer

A victory is expected from the memas Rockford has a strong team to meet them.

TEMPLARS HAVE MANY SIGNATURES

MEANS VOTING ON LICENSE QUESTION.

Petitions That Have Been Circulated in This City of Late Have Now Enough Signers—Two Hundred and Fifty Required By Tomorrow—
Voters Active.

Members of the local Independent Order Good Templars, who have been most active of late in circulating petitions about the city in order that the license and no-license question can be voted on at the coming spring election, claim now that they have secured the required number of signatures which is one-tenth of the voters of the city or between two hundred and eighty and three hundred. This means that temperance workers have been on the alert and those that have been circulating these petitions claim that they had little difficulty in securing the signers. Now that it is certain that the license question is to be voted on here this spring, these same temperance workers who circulated the petitions promise soon to enter the field and work for votes. A Good Templar who circulated one of the petitions to which was attached over seventy-five signatures said today: "I had but few men refuse me when I asked for their signature, I don't doubt but what many signed it more out of curiosity than anything else, but there is one thing certain, and that is that we can rely on fully seven-eighths of our signers voting the no license ticket this spring."

WAS AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Entertainment Given at Presbyterian Church Last Evening.

A most enjoyable and successful social was given by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church in the church parlors last evening. It was in the nature of a president's social. A most appropriate program was carried out, in which many of the presidents were represented. The rooms were handsomely decorated with pictures of presidents, flags and bunting. Light refreshments were served and taking all in all, the affair was a grand success.

Tempting Offer

John Fisher, of Janesville, who is now in Madison, as manager of the state university team, has received a proposition from Harvard, offering Wisconsin $1,500 for a football game next fall, to be played at Boston. Captain O'Dea strongly advocated the acceptance of the offer, but in view of the friendly relations with Yale in naval affairs, the board decided that it would be more advantageous to play Yale.

MADISON BARBERS TALK

George Joachim Raises an Objection to the Barbers' Bill

M. H. Whitaker of this city, who is now in Madison in the interest of the barbers' bill, now before the assembly, is meeting with some opposition from Madison barbers.

Geo. E. Joachim, one of the leading tonorial artists of the Capital City, when asked for his opinion, said, "I don't think it will improve the business.
The bill may be a first-class thing, but I fail to see it. The man who shines shoes here will have to pass an examination next, I suppose. It is a good thing for the examining board—and we pay for it. If a man does good work he is certainly qualified, and if not, he is easily disqualified."

ARE RUSHING 'PHONE WORK

Beloit Free Press Speaks of The New Local Exchange.

In speaking of Janesville's new telephone company the Beloit Free Press says:

"The work on the new telephone exchange at Janesville is being rapidly pushed to completion by the construction company. Mr. Chas. C. Russell, who is actively interested in the work, says that lines will be put up and in working order at a cost of about $62 per telephone—which, investigation showed, was the minimum price at which the work could be done. The company that is constructing the plant is experienced in the business, and is therefore able to do it at the lowest possible cost."

LAI D TO THE FINAL REST

Mrs. James Morton.

Mrs. James Morton died at her home in Johnstown after a prolonged illness, Saturday, March 10th. Mrs. Morton was a native of Scotland, coming to this country in 1868, and married the following year to James Morton. Early in life she joined the Baptist church, and later united with the M. E. church, at Richmond, Wis., where she was a member at the time of her death. She was a woman of sterling qualities, of excellent christian character and loved and esteemed by all who knew her. She leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss. Funeral services were held at Johnstown, March 13th, Rev.
William Dawson officiating. The interment was in the Johnstown Center cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Kelly.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Kelly will be held from St. Augustine's church, Footville, Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The interment will be in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

SWITZER TOOK MR.

FOX FOR SUCKER

SO THE LATTER ALLEGED AT BELVIDERE.

The Managers of the F. R. M. Coupon
Scheme in Janesville are Good Friends No Longer—Fox Dropped
Considerable Cash in the Venture
Before Failing.

The F. R. M. coupon scheme, which died a natural death in this city this week, has followed the same course in Belvidere. One of the daily papers in that city in speaking of the coupon failure there printed the following:

"The reason is that the free reading matter scheme as operated in Belvidere for some years by A. C. Switzer, of Elgin, and a few weeks ago transferred to a young man named Fox, from Elgin, has exploded, vanished into thin air, and those who have coupons to their credit may as well cross them off the book, or call on Switzer or Fox. Fox made his last visit to Belvidere last Friday. When he went away he bade adieu to the city, saying that he would not return. That being the case, those who are using the coupons may as well cease, as there will be no one to take them up. Before going, Fox volunteered the information that Switzer had caught a sucker in the person of one Fox, then present, and that Switzer was a good winner from the transaction. He said that he, Fox, had lost money every visit he made to the city, and that he was through throwing good money after bad, that he was bounced, and that the gold that glittered was not gold, but dross. There are many hundreds of people in Belvidere who have been using the coupons at various stores about town and have hundreds of coupons now to their credit."

Many in Janesville are left with several dozen coupons on their hands but Mr. Fox claims that they are nothing behind, even at that, because the coupons cost nothing to secure.

NEW ARMY FILLING UP FAST.

Full Complement Will Be Enlisted Within a Month.

TROOPS EAGER FOR SERVICE.

Large Proportion of Soldiers from Volunteer Regiments That Have Been Mustered Out Are Applying for Reinstatement—Philippine Stations Popular.

Washington, March 16.—It is announced at the war department that the work of recruiting the army up to the full force of 65,000 men, allowed by law, will be finished within thirty days. Recruiting stations have been established wherever good results were probable, and no difficulty has been found in filling the ranks. This is particularly true of regiments destined for the Philippines, that station being a choice of a majority of the new men.

A good proportion of the recruits are from the volunteer regiments already out of service, and the recruiting officers stationed at points where the volunteers were mustered out have been unusually busy.

The re-enlistment of these seasoned soldiers in such numbers is particularly gratifying to the war department officials.

After discharging from the regular army all those entitled to muster out by reason of the expiration of their terms of enlistment for the war with Spain, the force to be recruited under the recent army reorganization law numbered about 23,000, and from the progress already made, this number will be mustered in by the middle of April.

MANY MORE BIG TRUSTS.

Report of Copper Combine Capitalized at $1,000,000,000.

New York, March 16.—A meeting of the manufacturers of knit goods was held Wednesday to consider plans for a combination with a capital of $50,000,000. It is reported that the American Clothing Manufacturing company, which is being organized in Cincinnati, will have $100,000,000 and take in 150 manufacturers. Chicago advises say that the capitalization of the sheet-steel combination now forming will be $50,000,000, and that it will have a trade agreement with the American Tin Plate company.

Other combinations that Wall street heard of were the American School Furniture company, capital $10,000,000; a combination of New England leather manufacturers to oppose the leather combination now being promoted by Chicago men, and a combination of western Massachusetts breweries with a capital stock of $2,300,000.

Boston telegraphed a story that the long-talked-of combine of copper mining companies to control the world's output of the metal had been arranged, and that the prospectus would be issued next week of the American Copper company, with a capital stock of $1,000,000,000, which would acquire seven prominent copper companies, two of them foreign companies. The story was not to be confirmed, local copper men discrediting it.

Explosion Was by Design.

Paris, March 16.—France Militaire reaffirms that the recent magazine explosion at Toulon, by which about sixty persons were killed, was not an accident, but an atrocity. It says the military inquiry which has been instituted demonstrates the possibility of a person's climbing over the wall surrounding the magazines and reaching the roof, from which, through the ventilating shaft, it would be possible to explode the magazine by a fuse or clockwork apparatus.

John Sherman Has Pneumonia.

St. Pierre, Martinique, March 16.—John Sherman, who is a passenger on board the American liner steamer Paris, Capt. Frederick Watkins, which arrived here last night from Fort de France, with the party of excursionists who are making a tour of the West Indian islands, is suffering from pneumonia. His condition is considered less critical than before.

No Agreement Yet on Samoa.

Berlin, March 16.—It is semi-officially announced that a dispatch from Washington regarding an agreement on the Samoan question is premature. It is added that the negotiations are conciliatory, but the bases of procedure necessary for the alteration of the act of 1889 have not been discovered.

German Government Yields.

Berlin, March 16.—The government has resolved not to risk a conflict with the reichstag, and will declare its readiness to accept the amended army scheme as recommended by the budget committee. The bill is likely to pass its third reading, as amended, forthwith.

Orient at Peace Conference.

The Hague, March 16.—China, Japan, Persia and Siam, besides the European states, will be represented in the czar's peace conference to be convened here on May 18. The list of invitations has been forwarded to the Dutch government, which will shortly issue them.

Will Ratify Peace Treaty.

Madrid, March 16.—The queen regent will ratify the peace treaty with the United States as soon as the cortes is formally dissolved. The decree of dissolution will be issued tomorrow, the elections will be held April 15, and the new cortes will meet June 2.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Chicago, March 16.—Trade in cattle today had fair tone at prices paid earlier in the week, while hogs sold slowly and 5@10c below best prices paid Monday and Tuesday. Sheep and lambs sold readily and 5@10c higher than any time this season. Today's receipts were estimated at 13,000 cattle, 39,000 hogs and 12,000 sheep. Late trade in hogs had somewhat firmer tone and most of the really desirable offerings in all branches were bought up before the close.

Bargain seekers should not fail to visit the dining rooms of The Mrs. Clark Co., 151 153 Wabash Ave., Chicago, which is the very center of the shopping district. This restaurant has the finest cuisine and service in the city and the prices are moderate.

The restaurant on the 7th floor of the Association building in La Salle street is also run by this company and is equally inviting and attractive.

Rich Strike in California.

San Francisco, March 16.—A letter to the Examiner says that the residents of the mining town of Hayden Hill, Lassen county, in the extreme northeastern portion of the state, are greatly excited over an extraordinary rich strike of gold ore. The vein is about fifteen inches wide, about twenty-nine feet from the surface, and, it is said, prospects from $7,000 to $12,000 per ton.

Jamestown, Cal., March 16.—The Crystal group of mines, located about four miles west of Jamestown on the Mother lode, have been sold by C. E. Shafter to an Edinburgh, Scotland, syndicate for $250,000. Extensive development work is to be begun at once.

Havana, March 16.—The Cuban generals, Pedro Diaz, Jesus Montenegro, Luis Roban, Alberto Nodarse, Francisco Peraza and Pedro Betancourt, held a meeting and adopted resolutions against the assembly. Their action is important from the fact that they are all in command of troops. At a meeting of thirty officers who support the assembly it was decided to join their forces in the country to be ready for any emergency.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They Are Janesville People and What They Say Is Of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press, are published as facts when the intelligent reader knows they cannot be true, there is no wonder that people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual personal experience of our citizens and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see any day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

Mrs. S. L. Be den of 64 S. River St., says: "During the last two or three years I suffered most of the time with a terrible dragging down pain in my back just over the kidneys. It was very trying when I was at work, and if I did any lifting my bladder became affected, causing me considerable annoyance. I also had attacks of headaches, which seemed like congestion in the top and back of my head. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills I did not have any too much confidence in them, but my daughter got a box at the Janesville Co.'s drug store and persuaded me to use them. I am very glad I did so for they took right hold and in a wonderful change in my condition. I hardly realized how bad I was until Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief from the afflictions. I have recommended this remedy on several occasions, and will do all that I can to let others know of its merits."

STORY OF TWO DEATHS

One dull November afternoon, John Gerrard, the well known financier, was shown into the handsome private office of Nathaniel Nugent, the even better known millionaire company promoter.

Nugent rose with extended hand—a bland smile appearing on his usually impassive features, which remained there till the clerk withdrew. Then it disappeared with the swiftness of a magic-lantern slide, leaving his face rigid and ghastly.

"Gerrard, for God's sake, don't tell me you must have that money back now!"

"That's just what I have to tell you, Nugent, and sorry I am to do it, but I was hard hit over Kaffirs, and this new scare has made matters worse than ever."

"Then I'm a ruined man."

There was dead silence in the office for a few moments. A look of despair crept over Nugent's face, and his guest looked almost as ill at ease. Suddenly steps were heard on the stairs.

"That's Lord Mount Dacre, one of our directors. He half suspects something already, and if he sees you here he will guess at once what you have come about."

"What can I do? Is there another way out?"

"No—but stay! Step into that cupboard. He won't be here many minutes."

Hastily pushing Gerrard into a large cupboard, Nugent locked the door, and turned smilingly to greet another unwelcome guest.

As Lord Mount Dacre discussed the business of the company in which they were mutually concerned, his heart was on tenter hooks, for there was a slight noise in the cupboard.

"Dear me, I didn't know you had another room adjoining. I hope we can not be overheard."

"No, no, it's merely a cupboard," said Nugent, and he got rid of his visitor as quickly as possible, and then went to set Gerrard free.

The atmosphere of the cupboard seemed unusually oppressive.

"Come out—he's gone. Why, Gerrard, where are you?" demanded he, as nothing stirred.

Then his hand touched another hand which was cold and lifeless.

"My God—he's dead!"

When Nugent had partially recovered from the shock which this discovery gave him, he found that the accidental closing of a ventilator had been the cause of the catastrophe.

Then he called in Wells, the clerk who had shown Gerrard into the office. Wells, formerly a schoolfellow of Nugent's, twenty years his head clerk, was the one man in London from whom the great company promoter had no secrets.

"Now, Wells, what is to be done? You must think, for I'm nearly past it. The fact of Gerrard's having come to my office will be enough to ruin me, for there are rumors out in the city already about our dealings, and, besides that, his executors will demand repayment of all the money I owe him. In any case I'm ruined now."

"Who knows that he came here expecting ourselves?"

"Did nobody see you let him in?"

"No, he came in by the side door, which I always attend to myself."

"But might not some one in the street have seen him coming in?"

"Impossible in a fog like this, sir."

"Why, no—I suppose not—then you mean to suggest—"

"That we search the body—see if by any luck he has your papers on him—"

"THE MEN CARRIED A MYSTERIOUS BURDEN."

If he has, burn them, and—put the body into the river."

"But—this is terrible—and it amounts to a fraud."

"Why should you look at it like that, sir? You can repay the money to his friends anonymously when things mend, and you said this morning everything would go right if only you could keep the money another six months."

"True—I hate the idea," Wells, but I don't see what else I'm to do, and—I'll risk it."

Some hours later two men groped their way through the fog which had driven nearly everybody indoors. The men carried some mysterious burden, which at any other time would have provoked some policeman's curiosity, but tonight, when a man could hardly see his hand before him, even under the street lamps, the men and their burden passed unchallenged.

"We're nearly at the wharf, sir, now," whispered Wells as the noise of the sirens grew every moment more distinct. "Keep your courage up—another few steps and we're safe—my God!"

As he uttered this exclamation Wells fell over the edge of the wharf, dragging with him the body of Gerrard.

After desperate but vain attempts at rescue, Nugent left the wharf, well nigh demented by the horror of the situation.

He had sufficient self-control, however, to be silent as to what had occurred, and when the bodies of the two men were found, far apart in the river, no one connected the death of the great financier with that of the obscure clerk.

To the surprise of everybody Mr. Gerrard left far less wealth than had been expected, though six months later his heirs received a large sum from an unknown source.

The Nugent companies are as prosperous now as ever, and their promoter is a baronet, but few men who know him would care to change places with the great speculator, for, since the day when his clerk was drowned, Nugent has been an altered man. Those who note his bowed head and brooding eyes attribute this startling change to the effect of "A City Scare."—Ally Sloper.

MOSSBACK SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS

How It Fought the Building of the Mississippi Bridge.

The persistent opposition of St. Louis to the drainage canal project is as unreasoning and sure to be as inconsequent as was that city's hostility forty years ago to the Chicago and Rock Island railroad company's project to build a traffic bridge across the Mississippi river.

Despite injunctions and every form of legal interference the bridge was built and used by the company. It was the first bridge of the kind over the great river and the only one of whatever kind below St. Anthony, now Minneapolis.

But not for long after the splendid structure was completed and its usefulness tested, with respect to general commerce, did St. Louis give over the fight. Her allegation was that it obstructed the navigation of the river and that therefore the United States government should order it taken down.

While there was nothing to back up this allegation, there was not much attention paid to it either in or out of the courts. Facts, however, were soon created, which it was hoped would compel action to be taken to clear the river, which was described as a waterway that should be forever inviolable—nature's creation that marked for all time the foreordained course of northwestern commerce.

No railroad could have a right to throw a bridge over this "descending sea." The state of facts which it was necessary to create in order to prove this was only to be had in one way, and by pursuing that way considerable loss of property and possibly some loss of life might be unavoidable.

The contention was, on the side of the railroad, that the bridge did not obstruct the river traffic. To make it plain to all the world that it did a steamboat or two had to be wrecked on the bridge's piers.

This was accordingly done in broad daylight. And more than the mere wrecking was accomplished, one or two steamboats took fire and were burned to the water's edge.

Some lives were actually lost in the contrived disaster. Then at last the opposition had, or so it was supposed, a good case. St. Louis was excited again and more litigious than ever.

Its citizens contributed and expended large sums of money in the cause. But they were defeated at every point; the railroad did not, pending the controversy, lose a single run over the bridge; and the other westward-pointing roads soon imitated the Rock Island's example, and without trouble or protest each had its own bridge across "the father of waters."

In the meantime St. Louis changed its mind and decided to have a bridge of its own right at home. Therefore a very poor ferry had transported all that had occasion to cross the river at that point, and to remove that ferry and give the right of way to the bridge was not an easy thing.

St. Louis conservatism was attached to the old ferry. The bridge, however, when built was the city's pride. It remains its chief pride to this day.

By means of it its people are connected with the great world, and are seen to be gradually rising out of their provincialism. But if they had listened to a Chicago man, Mr. Boomer, the bridge builder, they might have had their bridge some years earlier than they did.

They feared Chicago and resisted this citizen's proposal. And now that this city is about to complete a vast work and will let the waters of Lake Michigan into the Mississippi river and so benefit navigation—directly benefit St. Louis—it meets with something like the old-time opposition. Foolish and impotent St. Louis!

Fuel Bricks.

United States Consul Powell, at Stettin, calls attention to a report to a comparatively new industry in Pomorania, which might be practiced wherever turf moors abound.

The turf is broken into small lumps by a mill, and afterward ground into powder. It is then thoroughly dried in passing through heated tubes, and from the drying machine it falls into a plunger, where it is pressed into the form of bricks.

These bricks make an excellent slow-burning fuel, and cost about one-tenth of a cent apiece at retail.

Nerves, stomach and liver are all aided by "Orangeine," hence its quick and safe action in colds and headaches.

Augustana Synod Adjourns.

Rockford, Ill., March 16.—Home missions was the subject which occupied much of the time of the Illinois conference of Augustana synod Wednesday.

Resolutions of thanks were voted the mission board, and it was decided that at least 20 cents per communicant be collected for the mission work within the bounds of the conference.

Appropriations for needy churches were left to the mission board. Rev. P. J. Sward of Omaha, president of Augustana synod, delivered the closing sermon of the conference.

No Peace Envoys Yet Chosen.

Washington, March 16.—It is said at the state department that no selection has yet been made of representatives of the United States at the approaching peace conference at The Hague.

The president is awaiting the action of some of the European governments to gather an idea of the number of representatives who are expected to attend from each nation invited to the conference.

Patrons of Industry at Toledo.

Toledo, Ohio, March 16.—Delegates from six additional states were seated in the session of the Patrons of Industry of America Wednesday. The annual report of the secretary showed that a co-operative business of $2,000,000 has been established.

Twenty-five mutual fire insurance companies have been organized. Minor revisions of the constitution were made.

Editor Heacock Sent to Jail.

Washington, Iowa, March 16.—C. C. Heacock, editor of the Brighton Enterprise, was sent to jail Wednesday for six months for criminal libel.

He was convicted in January, but was given his liberty during good behavior. He has continued his libels through his paper, though, with the above result. It was the fifth suit against him for libel.

In Madrid on Secret Mission.

London, March 16.—Stanton Sickles, secretary of the United States legation at Madrid, before the rupture of diplomatic relations, has been there, according to the correspondent of the Morning Post, for eight days on a secret mission.
